

Picture by the window

You sit by the window	A Hm
Lookin' out at nothin'	A Hm
There's a calm feeling in the picture	A Hm
There's a peaceful look in your eyes	A Hm
And I start to wonder if I am	E Hm
If I am in your mind	E Hm
Then you turn to me	D
Turn to me and smile.	D med lös E (Slinga 2ggr)

I take the chair that's beside you
I sit down, I say nothing
Then I take your hand
Strikes it soft and gently in mine
A cars passing by outside the window
Honking the horn and then disappears
Then I turn to you
Turn to you and smile

You say, have you ever thought 'bout your name
And how it's a part of you
And if you try to lye 'bout it
It's so easy to see through
I'll guess it's printed in your eyes
Like ink on paper, it's in your eyes
Well, I say quite frankly, when I answer you
No- But I'll guess you're right.

So I ask you, why do we grow older?
You say you think it has something to do
With this thing we invented
Long ago and named it time
So we look out through the window
And there's happiness in the picture
Then I turn to you and say
Well I don't mind

This time I don't mind (Under slinga)
At last I don't mind
